PROCEEDINGS OF THE ANNUAL MEETING.

The Forty-third Annual Meeting of the "Brooklyn Association for Improving the Condition of the Poor," was held on Wednesday evening, October 6, 1886.

Mr. David M. Stone was appointed Chairman, and Mr. Thomas M. Andrews was chosen Secretary.

The Annual Report was then read and adopted as the report of the Society. The Board of Managers was authorized to print twelve thousand copies for distribution.

The Treasurer's Account, duly audited, was presented and accepted, and ordered to be printed with the Annual Report.

The Board of Managers for the ensuing year was then elected by a unanimous vote.

The minutes of this meeting having been read and approved, the Society adjourned.

THOMAS M. ANDREWS,

Secretary.

FORTY-THIRD ANNUAL REPORT.

Thanks, hearty thanks to you, the generous patrons of our noble charity, through whose timely gifts it has been enabled to afford relief and comfort to more than 43,500 of our worthy poor during the inclement season of another year. We come with pleasure to lay before you our forty-third annual report, hoping that a faithful account of our stewardship will not only meet your hearty approbation, but stimulate you to yet larger gifts in the future, as you realize more and more the vastness of the work to be done in our great city.

To those who contribute to our Association, but may not know who, among the poor, are to be assisted, and to what extent, it seems proper to state that the end to be accomplished through its instrumentality is to bridge over the chasm of temporary want, felt by a large and worthy class of people, who are usually able to support themselves, (many of whom would rather starve than beg), but who, overtaken by unexpected calamity, need a helping hand to set them on their feet. Sickness or death, the breaking of a limb or the sudden loss of employment, often make sad havoc with the little stores of many a poor family that before had lived in comparative comfort. They are in no sense paupers—willing to live upon charity. They are in unavoidable misfortune only for the time being, and need but a timely lift to recover themselves, and regain their independence. The prosperous, who have never felt the pinchings of want, know not what untold good even a little timely assistance—as for instance a small package of groceries and meat or a little clothing and coal, costing less than $5—will accomplish in a hungry and shivering household. Such benefactions bring reward to the bestower as truly as blessings to the recipient, for—like “Mercy,”

Charity “is twice bless’d,
 “It blesseth him that gives and him that takes ;
 “Tis mightiest in the mightiest,
 “It becomes the throned monarch better than his crown.”

Large-hearted charitable men, who know the thorough and minute workings of this Institution, and appreciate the extent of blessing it sheds upon distress, can hardly fail to realize that they lay themselves under obligation to it by their very gifts, because they thus secure the faithful use of its time, knowledge, long experience, skill and admirable machinery to do for them, their benevolent work, resting assured that it will be done in the best manner, and at the least possible cost.

Its founders, with a wise forecast to the greatest good it could bestow upon humanity, designed its benefits only for the industrious and unfortunate people, who, even in poverty, strive to become good citizens. It is not an asylum for mendicants or beggars. It gives no countenance whatever to the vicious, the lazy, the intemperate, the dishonest, or any who are able, but too shiftless to help themselves ; such beings are pests in our community, who swell our taxes and fill our jails. From their ranks are recruited the professionals who have reduced begging and stealing to a science ; they employ the skill of the burglar to get into the hearts and pockets of the generous and unsuspecting by their plausible but lying stories and forlorn looks, when the stealing business happens to be dull.

Our reports of itinerant beggars from year to year give numerous instances in which they thrive by it, some of them having good bank accounts. Nor is it the province of this agency to support the numerous and utterly helpless poor, however worthy, who must be supported as paupers from year to year. Their dependence must be upon other organizations of benevolence.

The claims of this Society upon every taxpayer in our city, not only on the score of charity, but of self-interest, are such that he cannot afford to withhold his support from it. In the June number of a magazine published in Boston—the Lend a Hand—we find the following: “Brooklyn abolished public out-door relief in January, 1878. The value distributed for the ten years previous, had averaged $130,000 yearly, partly coal, but mostly groceries, divided among nearly 10,000 families. Brooklyn forms nearly the whole of Kings County, and the County Supervisors therefore ordered the supplies for out-door relief, while the Commissioners of Charities distributed them. There were five distributing offices, to some one of which each ward of the city was assigned, each having its particular day for distribution. On these days many hundreds of women would sit in a crowd for hours, with their baskets, waiting for their weekly dole. Paid visitors to the homes of the applicants had been tried and found worse than useless. One winter every applicant had been compelled to swear to her poverty, and still the number grew. It is difficult to conceive of a more demoralizing system than Brooklyn labored under until 1878.” A comparison of the cost of assisting the poor and its results under this management, with our admirable system for relief, cannot fail to satisfy every intelligent tax-payer as to the wisdom and duty of sustaining our Association.

The character of every application for relief is investigated promptly at the home of the family, and if found to be worthy of assistance, it is sure to be given at once. “Not a single worthy applicant has been turned away from the doors of this Association throughout the whole of the past year.” Tickets for relief are furnished to all contributors who desire them. Some persons who evidently do not know the thoroughness of our investigations concerning applicants, or perhaps want excuses for not giving, say to our solicitors, "I have no faith in your work. My wife gave one of your tickets to a poor family, who went to your office and got nothing," or they urge other excuses of similar import. Yet in every instance, where relief may have been withheld, it is entirely certain that there were good reasons for withholding it, and that those reasons would have been given at once if applied for, as a perfect record of them is kept from year to year for our guidance.

Another excuse urged by a very few, is, that "the Association is sectarian," and hence partial in its gifts—favoring only or mainly those of its supposed faith, when in truth, there is no sectarianism about it. More than eighty per cent. of its gifts go to people entirely outside of the class who contribute that eighty per cent. to its support. The Association recognizes no difference between Jew and Gentile, Greek and Barbarian, Catholic and Protestant, realizing only the fact that every creature of want—whatsoever his belief, has human needs alike common to all, and if worthy, is entitled to such relief as it can give. "Hath not" the poor "senses, affections, passions, fed with the same food, hurt with the same weapon, subjected to the same diseases, healed by the same means, warmed and cooled by the same winter and summer," as the affluent?

We speak of these unjust charges to disabuse the minds of those who have made them, and to guard this agency against these charges in the future.

The thanks of the Association are specially due to the noble band of men and women who have sustained it, in its good work from year to year. It remembers with profound gratitude, the untiring faithfulness and patience of those good women whose efficient heads and skillful hands have made its clothing department a source of unspeakable comfort to the cold and naked. It does not forget to thank the large number of physicians who have given their gratuitous services for the relief of the sick. It can hardly find words to express thankfulness to its efficient and zealous solicitors, through whose labors, in season and out of season, are brought from our contributors the means so important to our work. We bespeak for them one and all, a warm-hearted and open-handed welcome from the good people of Brooklyn. They come from days of busy toil; often with weary feet to hasty meals, and then are quickly off to their night work, when only they can find contributors at home. They well deserve such cheer, in their gratuitous and self denying work, as they go on their weary way among strangers, in cold and darkness and storm. None know better than they the chilling effect upon a night's work of a rebuff received last winter, when a ring at the door bell of a palatial mansion, in the absence of Bridget, brought its lord to the door, who seeing the shivering solicitor in the darkness without, said in churlish accent, "Well, what do you want?" His reply was, "I want nothing, but your city's poor want bread and clothing, and coal to relieve their sufferings, and I have called in their behalf to solicit your aid, the need of which is shown in the report lately left with you." A slam of the door in his face, after an abrupt "I'll not give you a cent," ended the interview. Such hospitality at the door of elegant opulence is rare, but similar churlish answers may not be entirely unknown to some of our solicitors in their earnest appeals for help to the struggling, poverty stricken families of want.

In marked contrast with such receptions, is the cordial, warm-hearted welcome received almost everywhere in our city from gentlemen whether rich or poor, who give cheerfully according to their means, and thank the visitor for his labor in thus helping them to do their charitable work.

It is the earnest desire of our Association that an intimate and thorough knowledge of its benevolent work may be brought home to the hearts and consciences of all the citizens of Brooklyn who are not yet contributors to its support; and to that end, we heartily wish that every friend of the Institution would kindly do what they can to disseminate that knowledge among their acquaintances by their commendation of its work, and by the circulation of our reports as opportunities offer. It is believed that many of our prosperous citizens would gladly send in their checks to our Treasurer unsolicited, at the commencement of winter, when funds are so greatly needed, did they really know the good they could thus accomplish for the deserving poor, as it is impossible for our solicitors to make personal application to all in our great city who have the ability and the heart to lend a helping hand to so important a charity. If we could double our receipts, we would more than double the good that is done, as our spacious building, and other appliances are adequate for greatly enlarged work.

A most cordial welcome will gladly be given to all, who feel inclined to visit our rooms, and see for themselves the completeness of our system in all its departments. Indeed, it is believed that a careful inspection of it would amply repay all who are interested in benevolent work.

SUMMARY OF THE WORK.

During the past year this Association has assisted 10,872 families, consisting of 43,537 persons. Large quantities of the very best groceries and provisions bought at wholesale and valued at $5,000 were given out to worthy applicants, and 1,409 tons of coal, costing over $7,000, were also given in quarter and half-ton lots to 3,985 families. In the last winter 3,936 articles of new clothing were distributed from the Ladies' Clothing Bureaus at a cost of $3,700, and 732 articles of second-hand clothing valued at $289, thus relieving a great amount of suffering. Medical services, valued at $4,500, were subscribed as a gratuitous offering by the physicians of our city, of which amount $3,169 have already been rendered to the destitute sick. 168 orders for medicine have been filled at a cost of $178. The clothing and medical attendance have been furnished in addition to the cash contributions, which have passed through the accounts of the Treasurer.

PRINCIPLES AND OBJECTS

OF THE ASSOCIATION.

This Association is organized for a special purpose, and its labors are specific. It seeks to do collectively, just what the benevolent desire to do individually, viz.: to elevate the moral and physical condition of the worthy poor, and, as far as possible, relieve their necessities. It does not belong to the public at large, but to those who annually subscribe to its funds; and only such have a right to send applicants.

The following is an abstract of the fundamental rules by which the work of this Association is governed:

First—To give relief only after investigation of each case, either by visitation or through inquiry. To give only articles immediately necessary. To give assistance at the right moment, and not beyond the necessity which calls for it.

Second—To require, from every one who receives aid, abstinence from all intoxicating drinks as a beverage; that children of a proper age be kept at school, and those of suitable age be apprenticed to some trade or sent to service :—the design being to make the poor a party to their own improvement.

Third—To give no relief to recent emigrants, except in urgent cases, until they can be referred to the Commissioners of Emigration, when the responsibility of this Association towards them shall cease. The reason being that the Commissioners of Emigration are obliged by law to care for such persons, if needy, during five years after their arrival, and are provided with means for this purpose.

Fourth—To give no aid to persons, who, from infirmity, imbecility, old age, or any other cause, are unable to earn their own support, and therefore are permanently dependent. In extreme cases, or until they can be referred to the proper Institutions for permanent relief, temporary assistance may be given. Notwithstanding these persons may be worthy, they are non-improvable. The reason of this rule is, the permanently dependent are not regarded as proper subjects for relief by this Association, as we have no permanent fund.

Fifth—To discontinue relieving all who manifest a purpose to depend on alms rather than on their own exertions for support. The maintenance of these is incompatible with the objects of this Society; because such persons become so debased by continued gratuitous relief that there is no hope of inciting them to self-support, and to aid them is to encourage vice and indolence.

This Association is not intended to supersede existing charities; but, as far as practicable, to supplement them, and make them available to those for whom they are designed:—its whole aim being to help those who strive to help themselves.

ARTICLE I.

Every person who becomes an annual subscriber shall be a member of the Association.

ARTICLE II.

The President and Secretaries shall perform such duties as usually pertain to their offices.

ARTICLE III.

The Treasurer shall give such security for the faithful performance of the trust reposed in him as the Association may demand and approve. He shall take in charge all funds, keep an account of all receipts and disbursements, and pay all duly authorized demands. At the Annual Meeting he shall render a particular and correct statement of his receipts and disbursements to the Association. He shall also exhibit a summary report to the Board of Managers at their stated meeting, and whenever called upon by them for that purpose.

ARTICLE IV.

The Board of Managers shall have exclusive control of the funds of the Association, and authority to elect or appoint a General Agent; to make By-Laws, to fill vacancies in its own body, and generally to adopt such measures as the objects of the Institution may require. It shall meet for the transaction of business at least once every month, except the months of June, July and August, and the Annual Meeting of the Association shall be convened in the month of October, on such day as the said Board shall decide, when the Board shall submit a report of its proceedings, and the Officers and Managers for the ensuing year, except the General Agent, shall be chosen by ballot or viva voce, as may be determined at the time. No one shall be chosen as an officer or manager, at such election, unless his name shall have been posted in the principal place of business of the Association as a candidate at least five days before the election is held, without his election shall be made by unanimous consent. In case of a failure to hold the specified meeting in October, a special meeting for the same purpose shall be convened in the course of the ensuing month.

ARTICLE V.

Special meetings of the Board of Managers may be called by the Secretary at the request of the President, or on receiving a requisition signed by five members of the Board. Two days' notice must be given of the time of meeting.

ARTICLE VI.

Nine members of the Board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, at all meetings of said Board, except in the special cases, when by law a greater number is required.

ARTICLE VII.

The Managers may at any time make such alterations in these By-Laws as may be deemed necessary, provided they be not contrary to the certificate of Incorporation, and that such alteration shall be submitted to the Board of Managers at least one meeting before the same are acted upon, and that they shall not be passed upon unless specified in the call of the meeting.

ARTICLE VIII.

An office shall be opened in an eligible situation for the purpose of concentrating and diffusing all information pertaining to the Society's operations and objects, and for the transaction of its general business.

ARTICLE IX.

It shall be the duty of the General Agent to devote himself with diligence and fidelity to the affairs of the Association, and he shall be subject to and act under the direction of the Board, and may be removed or suspended by the Board. It shall be his duty to attend at the office of the Association, and receive applications for relief, and either personally or through the medium of competent agents appointed by him, with the advice and consent of the President, to investigate all applications, and furnish appropriate relief, advising with the President, or with some member of the Board, on all difficult questions and doubtful cases, before granting relief. He shall also render a report to the Board at each stated meeting.

ARTICLE X.

Each ward included in the operations of this Association shall have an Advisory Committee of one or more members, the number in each ward to be decided upon by the Board of Managers previous to each Annual Meeting. It shall be the duty of the Advisory Committees to divide their wards into such sections as may be desirable, appoint solicitors therefor, fill vacancies which may occur, and exercise a general supervision over the operations of the Society in their respective wards.

ARTICLE XI.

It shall be the duty of the members of the Association to endeavor, in all suitable ways, to give practical effect to its principles, especially to discountenance indiscriminate almsgiving and street begging, to provide themselves with tickets of reference or members' requests, and refer persons whom they wish aided to the General Agent, in order that such cases may be properly inquired into and, if deserving, be relieved.
